Here's How It's Done : Directions

Total Recipe Amounts:

224 grams Red Moroccan Clay Powder
24 grams Rosehips Powder
24 grams Lavender Flower Powder
24 grams Turmeric Ground
24 grams St. John's Wort Herb Powder
24 drops Vitamin E Oil
32 drops Cornmint Essential Oil
48 grams Vegetable Glycerin

Clean and sanitize your work area and all of your packaging materials. It is suggested that you wear gloves, protective clothing, and a hair net while preparing this recipe.

Step 1: Take out a medium sized mixing bowl and your scale. Start weighing out the rosehips, lavender flower, turmeric, and St. John's powders. This does not have to be done in any particular order.

Step 2: Then, add in 224 grams of your red moroccan clay powder to that medium bowl. Use your hands to fully mix all of the ingredients together.

Step 3: Now, get a disposable pipette and add 24 drops of vitamin e oil to the mixture.

Step 4: Next, using a different pipette, add 32 drops of the cornmint essential oil.

Step 5: Finally, mix the ingredients once again, using a spatula or spoon.

Step 6: The powdered portion is now done! Now you can scoop the powder into the four ounce jars. Place a lid on each jar.

Step 7: For the next step, add in 12 grams of vegetable glycerin to each of the 1 oz. clear bullet bottles. Place a white ribbed lid on each bottle.

Here's How It's Done : Directions

Step 8: When you are ready to use your facial mask, take out a small mixing bowl. Add one tablespoon of powder, two tablespoons of water, and about 1/2 teaspoon of vegetable glycerin. Mix everything together well.

Note: We did not add water to our facial mask, which means you will not need to add a preservative. We chose to package the powder and the vegetable glycerin separately. Doing it this way will allow you to prepare a quick product for your customers. Each four ounce jar will create approximately 8 facial masks.
