1. Weigh out all of your butters and beeswax.
2. Begin melting the butters and beeswax using the double boiler method. Heat until completely melted. Be careful not to get your oils too hot, or you can ruin them.
3. Add your parsley leaf powder and stir.
4. Add your fragrance oil and stir.
5. Once blended, pour mixture into mini heart silicone molds.
6. Carefully sprinkle each heart with pink rose petals.
7. Allow mixture to partially step up at room temperature before moving to the freezer.
8. Once the mold is safe to move, place it in the freezer for 30 minutes.
9. Pop out the bath melts.
10. Place one bath melt into the bath tub under warm running water. Only one bath melt is needed. Be Careful: Your bath tub will be slippery from the butters once the bath melt has melted.
